

*Are you new to Canada?
Are you looking to build a successful career?*

ACCES Employment can help!

Supply Chain Connections

Supply Chain Connections helps internationally-trained supply chain professionals to find work in Canada. The program provides you with training that is current and relevant to Canadian workplaces. It builds on your previous experience by providing an orientation to the sector in Canada. The program was designed in consultation with employers, professional associations and academic institutions.

Program Components:

- One-to-one support from an employment consultant who is knowledgeable about the sector
- Referrals to job openings and connections to employers
- Access to mentors who are professionals in your field
- Recruitment and networking events
- Academic training from a recognized educational institute
- Business and workplace communication training in a Canadian context
- Orientation to your sector in Canada
- Job search support and preparation
- Continued coaching and support after you're hired

Alfonso Jauregui came to Canada hoping to build his career. With an MBA and over 10 years of experience in supply chain management, Alfonso was looking to work for a larger corporation at a higher level than he could find in his native Peru. "ACCES Employment was leading and advising me on what I needed to do. Without that initial help, I wouldn't be where I am today."

Why should you choose ACCES Employment?

ACCES Employment programs and services are highly specialized, offering sector-specific training designed to help new Canadians find work in their field. Each program is offered in close consultation with leading employers and academic partners and is designed to enhance (and not duplicate) your existing education.

Our first priority is to help you find full-time, permanent employment that reflects your experience. Over 80 per cent of our participants find employment in their field.

Program Fees:

- The fee for this program is $500. This fee offsets the academic portion of the program and may be eligible for full reimbursement through the Ontario Bridging Participant Assistance Program.
- All books and materials are included or available on-loan to participants at no additional cost.
- All other costs related to the program and employment services are generously funded by the Government of Ontario and the Government of Canada. The fee represents a small proportion (approximately 10 per cent) of the overall cost of the program.

Supply Chain Connections

“The program helped me to close the gap between how I was selling myself and what employers are looking for.”
