

If your organization trains more than 50 employees per year, then consider delivering OTEC's flagship "Customer Service Excellence" program in-house. Your trainers will gain a solid understanding of adult learning basics and will discover how to create a learner-centric environment. Your organization will benefit through increased employee participation, theory retention and support in your efforts to create a 'service culture.'

Day 1:

- Service Excellence

Day 2 & 3:

- Seven key principles of adult learning
- Four learning styles – the foundation of adult learning
- Components of the experiential learning cycle
- 10 effective strategies to deal with challenging training solutions
